Is your child in danger?

What do you know about your partner?

- Does he/she have a criminal history?
- How has he/she treated former girlfriends/boyfriends?
- How does he/she treat others in his family?
- How does he/she treat children?

Does your Partner:

- Show anger or impatience when your child cries or has a tantrum?
- Call your child bad names or put him/her down?
- Think it's funny to scare your child?
- Stop you from bringing your child to family events?
- Make all the decisions for you and your child?
- Tell you that you are a bad parent or that you should not have had kids?
- Pretend that when he hurt your child you are to blame, or it's no big deal?
- Scare your child with guns, knives, or other weapons?
- Tell your child he/she is a nuisance

If you answered yes to just one of these questions, your child might be at risk.

What can you do?

When signs of risk are identified, go to a safe place with your child and

- Call Stark County Job & Family Services Child Abuse/Neglect Report Line, 330-455-KIDS (5437)
- Call Domestic Violence Project at 330-453-SAFE (7233)

If you cannot get to a safe place, call 9-1-1 for immediate help.

Child Care

Locating safe and appropriate child care is important. You need to know the person with whom you are leave your child. Contact Stark County Job & Family Services (330-452-4661) for more information about your publicly funded child care program.

Important Information

The Ohio Department of Health reports that for the years 2016-2020, in cases in which the death of a child was due to abuse or neglect, the mother or father's partner cited 16% of the time

2018 Stark County statistics show that 17% of fatalities/near fatalities of children were caused by a parent's partner.

When you choose a partner for yourself, you are choosing one for your child as well.
